

Bio: Melanie Cruz

Pastor Melanie Cruz has dedicated the past thirty years to ministering to young people. With a heart for service, she has served in various roles, including Family Life Pastor at Camelback SDA Church, Children's Ministries Director for the Texico Conference, and Assistant Children's Ministries Director for the North American Division.

Currently, Pastor Melanie serves as the Adventist Community Services and Camp Ministries Director and for the Arizona Conference, where she continues to pour her passion into creating meaningful experiences for children, youth, and communities. Beyond her ministry, she is a devoted wife to fellow pastor and youth director Manny Cruz, and a loving mother to four wonderful daughters, and 3 sons in law. She enjoys the rich flavors of Indian food, reading, cherishes time with family, and finds joy in sharing God's love and His word with others.
