

Bio: Reginald Leach

Reggie Leach became Arizona Conference Treasurer June 1, 2016. Previously he was vice president for finance for the Minnesota Conference for 12 years. He was a missionary in Guam from 1999-2004 where he served as secretary-treasurer and director of stewardship and trust services. From 1987-1999 he was vice principal and director of finance for Champion Academy in Loveland, Colorado. Reggie is a graduate of Walla Walla College with a B.A. in Business. He earned an MBA from the University of Phoenix.

Reggie has served as an elder and has been involved in evangelism, preaching, and stewardship training. His personal interests include travel, classic literature, basketball, bicycling, golf, running, and classical and jazz music.

His wife, Kelle, teaches grades three and four at Glenview Adventist Academy. They have three children, Theron, Thane, and Regina.

Contact:

rleach@azconference.org

Preferred Language:

English

