

Dale Wolcott

(As of August 21, 2025)

Dale Wolcott, D.Min. – is the Native American Ministries Coordinator for the Arizona Conference. He has worked as a pastor on the Navajo Indian Reservation for nearly 20 years, as well as pastoring in California, South Dakota and Michigan, and serving for several years as a chaplain with Florida Hospital. He is married to Nancy who is a fabulous partner in ministry. They have two adult children, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Dale describes himself as "conservative in personal lifestyle; centrist in theology; and liberal in love." He has three core convictions: 1) God is smarter than I am; 2) Jesus is stronger than the devil; 3) Love works better than selfishness. He is a co-founder of Diné Adventist Radio and will bring your church a brief, up-to-the minute report on the progress of this Arizona Conference ministry, along with a Cross-centered, Bible-based and encouraging sermon.
